DEDICATION

- To our father -

"Honorable age is not that which standeth in length of years, nor that is measured by number of years; but wisdom is the grey hair unto men and an unspotted life is old age. The multitude of the wise is the welfare on the world; and the righteous live forevermore."--

PREFACE

It is with great pleasure I present this booklet to you on the biography of our common ancestor, William Kirkpatrick, which includes a picture of the family coat of arms for our Kirkpatrick line of ancestry. These badges of distinction were the reward of personal merit, and could be secured by the humblest as well as the highest. They are today the testimonials and warrants of bravery, heroism, and meritorious deeds of our ancestors; and they appeal to the pride of the intelligent and enlightened descendants of these families. The crest worn on top of the shield, usually placed on a wreath, was borne by knights and other personages of rank, when clad in armor, to distinguish them in battle, and as a mark to their followers and supporters. At first these badges were worn on the helmet, to render them more plainly visible, or on the arm, but in later times were transferred to the shield or armor. The heraldic description of our badge is: Arms - "Argent, a saltire azure, on a chief of the last, three cushions, or." Crest - "An arm embowed in armor, the hand grasping a bloody sword, all proper." Colors - "Argent (silver), Azure (blue), Or (gold), Proper (natural color)."

A lilt of the voice, with the tilt of the head of a proud people, and the laughter in the eyes will bespeak the Irish blood. To do justice to this trait of character, mention should be made of the Irish temper and gift of gab! One description so aptly put about an Irishman, "He breezes in as a nomad of the night might pull a latchstring, flings open the door, steps in out of the darkness, then makes himself at home in a stranger's house."

Appreciation of thanks is expressed to the people answering letters of inquiry, helping locate records, family Bibles, and old land records. No record compiled on genealogy is ever complete or perfect, and the author assumes full responsibility on the shortcomings of this book.

CHAPTER I

William Kirkpatrick, our immigrant ancestor, was b Ireland ca. 785. When he was a young man, he left home to seek a life for himself in America. He m Martha Ellen Hays ca. 1813. She was a native of Pennsylvania, b 9 Sept 1797. Our search for information found they lived in a little log cabin amid homely surroundings near the tiny villages of New Richmond and Laurel, in Clermont County, southeast of Cincinnati, Ohio, which was the leading city of the west for many years. The "Buckeye" state was admitted to the Union in 1803, and developed rapidly after 1815, and oddly enough Ulysses S. Grant and his parents lived almost neighbors to our Kirkpatrick ancestor, at the village of Point Pleasant, Ohio.

Between the years of 1823 - 9, William and Martha Kirkpatrick sought to establish a new home in the frontier and traveled through a wild, unsettled country, over many miles where few white men lived to the newly formed county of Edgar, in Illinois. Facing dangers from the Indians and undergoing great hardships, they settled near the village of Bloomfield in Edgar township, Illinois. From the general history of Edgar County, Illinois, we found that General John Edgar was a native of Ireland, and, in 1776, at the beginning of The American Revolution, was in the service of the British Government as an officer of a naval force on one of the American lakes. During the year named, he brought his wife to this country, and though he still continued in the service of the King, he nevertheless sympathized with the American cause, and many acts of kindness to the enemies of the English are recorded as having their origin in this noble-hearted man. Though he sustained himself until near the close of the war, as a British officer, he was yet suspected of being disloyal. Finally, the British cause became so distasteful to him that he could no longer endure it, and he resigned his office. Soon after his resignation, he removed to Illinois and located at the town of Kaskaskia. He was very wealthy and expended much of his means in building up the place. He built here the finest mansion in the Northwest Territory. General Edgar was a true Irish gentleman, and as such, his fine mansion was always open to rich and poor alike, and while he entertained his wealthy and refined friends in a manner befitting their position, no begger was ever sent from his door without receiving more than he had reason to expect. For a number of years, he was the wealthiest man and paid the largest taxes in all of the Northwest Territory. In 1823 when Edgar County was formed, the territory now called by the name of Edgar twp. was included in the three townships of Fairfield, Wayne, and Carroll, a small portion of the south being within the limits of Fairfield, and the balance being nearly equally divided north and south between Carroll and Wayne, the old State road passing through Bloomfield being the line between the two. At this time, there was not more than one family in what is now Edgar township. Joshua Martin had then lived for about a year on what has since been known as the Stage farm. Mr. Martin kept the post office at his place until Bloom-field was founded, when it was transferred to that place. Wm. Drake settled very soon after Martin, if not quite as early. During the five years following the advent of the Lowry family, principal among the pioneers of the township were Harrison and Hubbel Sprague, Wm. and Jacob Wyatt, James Marrs and Wells Morgan. The Spragues were from Vermont. They came with their father, then an elderly man, who here died.

In 1829, a number of families came out from Ohio and Kentucky and settled in the neighborhood, and some of the parties soon after founded the town. This was in reality a colony, and their location here proved to be one of the most important events in the history of the township. They were people of much more than ordinary character and intelligence, and their influence on the social and moral interests of this part of the county has been felt to this day. Among those who settled here at that time were James and William Gordon, John and James Riley, Joseph Odey, Samuel McClain, John McKee and Abram Conroy. In 1830 and 1833, Ensign Mitchell, Solomon Bond, and Wm. Barr came to the township. Edgar twp. was first organized April 7, 1857, at first being named Bloomfield twp. The village of Bloomfield was laid out by the Rev. John W. Riley, March 17, 1831. Mr. Riley had established a store and sold some goods, and the Gordon brothers had established their tannery. A blacksmith shop was also in operation. It was near the fine little stream of Brouillett Creek and on the main traveled highway between Paris and Chicago.

From the estate proceedings of our ancestor Kirkpatrick on file at Edgar Co., Illinois, we found he owned 163 acres of land, buying land from Abraham Conroy in 1834 and Wm. Gordon in 1836. As a taxpayer, his receipt for 1838 was $3.09, and $5.91 in 1839. A man of great energy, foresight, honesty and ambition, his success in the new world over a period of twenty years was to be broken up and his estate all but vanish. He came to an untimely death on November 20, 1838. About his illness, Doctor Wm. Clark was called to the Kirkpatrick home on 31 Aug, and 1 Sept receiving pay of $1.00 per visit plus the medications of castor oil, cathartics and nitrate powders. Apparently the illness progressed and on 20 Nov. 1838, another Doctor, James M. Conduitte, was summoned from 50 miles distance. This doctor received payment of $4.62½ for mileage, for a spleen mixture, 50¢ for espispastic plaster, and 50¢ for section. His total bill was $7.62½ as presented by Dr. Conduitte. Without question, he apparently died at this time, as evidenced by the fact that on Nov. 20, 1838, at Bloomfield, William Wood ordered his burying clothes from H. and J. Clark - 8 yds. Black Domestic @ .31 ¼ or $2.50, and 1 pr. cotton stockings @ 50¢ - Total $3.00. We also found a receipt, dated Nov. 31, for $7.00, for a coffin made for Wm. Kirkpatrick, deceased, by J. W. Riley. His funeral expense amounted to $46.33.

John McKee was legally appointed to serve as the administrator of our Kirkpatrick ancestor's estate, and David Light as guardian of three minor children - Nancy, Margaret and Robert. Notice of administration ran for 4 weeks at cost $2.00, in the Illinois Statesman, newspaper, and the receipt was dated 14 Dec 1838. On 28 November, John Manning, Collins Jolliffe, and Wm. Wood appraised the personal goods of Wm. Kirkpatrick, dec., each receiving 75¢ for their fee. This schedule included such items as: one breaking plough, one shovel plough, rifle gun, four axes, iron wedge, one wagon, three pair horse gears, four blind bridles, saddles, grindstone, loom, weaving machines, clock, scythes, 100 bu. corn, wheat, one flock sheep, milch cows, cows, one bull, heifers, steers, three calves, one lot stock hogs, one lot of pigs 18 in number, one lot of fat hogs, two sorrel mares, 1 bay mare, 1 sorrel horse, 1 colt yearling, 2 grey colts, etc. A sale of personal property was held 21 Dec 1838, and Patrick Cowan clerked the sale for a fee of $1.00. The sale bill listed the items, price and who purchased them. James E. Gordon received $1.00 for crying the sale. The amount from the sale was $352.23. Finally, one-third of the settled estate was received by the widow, Martha. Also she was allowed one horse and saddle by law. Balance of estate to legal heirs and to guardian of the minor heirs - each an equal portion of said balance.

The widow, Martha, remarried on 9 Sept 1841, to widower Wm. Stillwell, native of Kentucky, b 1794. He had two sons: Wm. and Joseph, born in Illinois. They continued to live in Edgar County, and a daughter was born to them in Iowa Territory in 1842, where the combined families had moved and settled on a farm in Jefferson County, Locust Grove twp., Iowa. They are listed as being 1848 voters of that county. Wm. Stillwell d Sept 1850. Martha d 27 April 1876, burial in Memphis Cemetery, Memphis, Missouri.

KIRKPATRICK

Variations: Kirkwood, Kirkland, Kirtland, Kirkaldy, Kirkby, Kirkley

Racial origin: English

Source: Localities

The word "Kirk" is the same word as "church," the former pronunciation having developed in the North England and the Anglo-Saxon part of Scotland, while the southern English gradually evolved the word "church."

All of these family names indicate that their first bearers had lived at one time in one of several towns or communities. Kirkpatrick (which means Patrick's Church), is a place name in Scotland, as also is Kirkaldy, Kirkwoods tracing back to medieval times, are to be found in at least two places in England.

WILLIAM KIRKPATRICK

I Earliest records

William KIRKPATRICK was born in Pennsylvania ca 1784-1794. It is believed he is the same person listed as the Head of Household in the 1810 Census of Venango County, Pennsylvania, Cherry Tree township as follows: (0-0-1-0-0) (0-0-0-0-1); or Males (1) 16-26, and Females (1) 45 years and over - page 461, line 11. Neighbors were on either side William Reynolds Jr and Hanah Gregg. Also on the same page on line 17 was Daniel Fleming.

From the Tax Assessments early records for the County of Venango we found:

Cherry Tree township

1807 ~~Kirkpatrick, William~~ (crossed out)	400 A	val	$ 93
Daniel Fleming (sic)	1 horse		15
	2 cows		15
		Tax 76¢
1808 Kirkpatrick, William	200 A		$ 125
	1 horse		20
	2 cows		20

1809 and After - No Kirkpatrick's
But Daniel Fleming is back with 400 acres

There are no households for Kirkpatrick's listed in the 1800 and the 1820 Census for Venango County. And William KIRKPATRICK is the only Kirkpatrick household in the 1810 Census for this same county.

II His marriage

William KIRKPATRICK married Martha HAYS ca 1816. She was the oldest daughter and child of John HAYS and Martha McMULLEN. This is the same family as listed John HAYS Sr Household of the 1810 Census, Sugar Creek township, Venango County, Pennsylvania - page 495, line 15 as follows: (1-0-0-0-1)(3-2-0-1-0). They were found 1800 Census Allegheny County, Pennsylvania John HAYS household as follows: (0-0-0-1-0)(2-0-1-0-0) - page 87. Neighbors in 1810 Venango County on either side were Philip Kees and Alexander Fowler.

It is well to note that there were several John Hays families all in the same area. Also, later on in Venango County, there was a William KILPATRICK and a William KIRKPATRICK. Please keep in mind that our family did not change our name of Kirkpatrick spelling. And the family of Kilpatrick's is a separate distinct family surname - and was found living in/near our families.

III The family of Hays

John HAYS was born in Ireland, a son of Hugh HAYS of Fannet, County Donegal, March 1, 1762. (Shrove Tuesday, 1760 Reference "History of the Archerd Family" page 9). He came to America ca 1793-1795 with his brother William HAYS and family. Two others, his brothers Hugh HAYS and Robert HAYS also came to America. John HAYS may have been at Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania; but later was with/near his brother and family, Robert HAYS of Pittsburg area before arriving in Venango County. There is the following paper of Naturalization for Venango County:

> "John HAYS In the matter of Application of John HAYS praying the Court to be admitted a citizen of the United States of America.
> Petition of the Intentions of the applicant Filed September 18th A D 1809. March 18th A D 1809. Application granted. Oath administered and Certificate issued."

William KIRKPATRICK married into the HAYS family as already mentioned. His father-in-law, John HAYS, was a native of Ireland, but was Scotch-Irish. His mother-in-law, Martha McMULLEN (unsure of correct surname spelling...McMullin, etc) was born in the state of Pennsylvania March 25, 1779. John HAYS and Martha McMULLEN were married ca 1796 in Pennsylvania.

IV Scotch-Irish Presbyterian families

The ancestry of John HAYS is given on page 646 LOCAL HISTORY OF VENANGO COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA by Beers in 1919 "The HAYS FAMILY whose members have taken a prominent part in the development of Oakland township from the early settlement of that section, and now also represented in business circles in Oil City and elsewhere in Venango county, is of that rugged Scotch-Irish stock which formed so important an element in the colonization of Pennsylvania. Hugh HAYS, its first ancestor of whom we have record, driven from Scotland in 1688 during the persecution of the Covenanters, was among those who sought refuge in the North of Ireland, settling at Fannet, in County Donegal. He had four sons, Hugh, Robert, John and William, of whom Hugh's son Hugh came to America with his widowed mother at the instance of a relative, Capt Fowler, who at one time commanded the old fort at Franklin - probably about 1765. This Hugh HAYS was the ancestor of Brigadier General HAYS, who commanded the Pennsylvania troops at Gettysburg and was killed at the battle of the Wilderness. It was about 1795, that Hugh's uncles, John and Robert, arrived at Greensburg, Westmoreland Co.,Pa, and within the next ten years, about 1803-04, they removed to Venango county, where they settled permanently. Coming to Franklin, they secured a tract of one thousand acres in Oakland township, trading soldier warrants for this land, and the part on which they made a home lay six miles west of the mouth of Oil creek and eight miles north of Franklin. Here the HAYS family has been established ever since. ... Robert HAYS removed from here, finally settling at Louisville, Kentucky, one of his grandsons having been the late Will S. HAYS, long connected with the Louisville COURIER-JOURNAL. The latter's son is a practicing physician in Louisville at this writing."

Next paragraph contains a 'big mistake' which is very misleading to anyone researching these lines. It reads: " All of the children of John HAYS were born to his first marriage with Mary McNUTT." It got the brothers mixed-up and should read: "All of the children of William HAYS were born to his marriage ....." On page 611 HISTORY OF VENANGO COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA by Caldwell in 1879 "Robert HAYS ..." removes this error. This Robert HAYS was a son of above mentioned William HAYS and his marriage to Rebecca McNUTT. The descendants of William HAYS and Rebecca McNUTT have left records, and please refer to a Chart drawn by Margaret S. WARD and Narrative by Doc WARD.

John HAYS and Martha McMULLEN had these children: The first child was their daughter, Martha born September 9, 1797 and who was our Great Great Grandmother, the wife of William KIRKPATRICK; Elizabeth born December 12, 1799 and who married April 30, 1818 to John ARCHARD - Elizabeth (HAYS) ARCHARD died Dec 12, 1883 at Marshall Co. Iowa; Margaret (HAYS) TREMPER; Robert HAYS whose sons were Clinton, Porter and Charles HAYS; Lilley (HAYS) WATKINS; William HAYS who died; Susan (HAYS) PORTER; John HAYS Jr whose son was William HAYS; Nancy (HAYS) MOREHEAD; Rebecca (HAYS) WATKINS; Mary (HAYS) McCOY; and George Washington HAYS who married Amanda WHITE whose son was Thomas White HAYS.

V The 'great migration' Westward

According to the Narrative by Doc Ward, the Hays brothers, -John, William, Robert and Hugh - eventually found their way to the area of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Also, eventually they did part and go separate locations, and our John HAYS went to the area of Cincinnati, Ohio. From Land Records, Book V-20, page 582 John HAYS purchased 60 acres Survey #913 from Amos HAINES attorney in 1823; the following year Book W-21, page 76 he sold ten acres. On page 385 HISTORY OF CLERMONT COUNTY,OHIO he is listed as 1826 property owner in Monroe twp; William HAYS is listed on page 367 in Washington twp. The Census records show 1820 John HAYS living in Washington twp; 1830 John HAYS in Monroe twp and another John HAYS living in Ohio twp.

John HAYS and Martha McMULLEN his wife each left their Wills recorded at Clermont County, Ohio - Book F, pp 105-7 and Book H, pp 96-8. He died Feb 1, 1846 and she died May 10, 1857 both are buried in Hulington Cemetery in Monroe township, Clermont County. This is a Scotch settlement cemetery.

John HAYS removed from Venango County, Pennsylvania sometime 1816, and probably went to Brown County, Ohio. His daughter was married in Brown County in 1818. (See HISTORY OF THE ARCHERD FAMILY 1911 by John Thomas ARCHERD of Eagle Grove, Iowa)

The Land Records for Clermont County, Ohio show transactions for William KIRKPATRICK as follows: Book U-19 pp 168-9 Survey #1357 assignment 1820 $475 pp 172-3 bought land Aug 30, 1820 50 acres - 120 poles on Big Indian Creek in Washington twp from Joshua and Sarah MANNING. William and Martha KIRKPATRICK sold this land on Oct 22, 1828 for $300 to Levi ARMACOST from Book Z-24 page 356. William KIRKPATRICK is listed as property owner 1826 in Washington township on page 367 of HISTORY OF CLERMONT COUNTY, OHIO.

William KIRKPATRICK and Martha HAYS had these children: William Jr, Katharine, Martha, Mary, Nancy Ann, Margaret Jane and Robert Finley... seven in all. The family is listed on page 29-57 Ohio twp. 1820 Clermont Co.OH Census (2-0-0-0-1-0)(1-0-1-0-0)the only KIRKPATRICK living in the county. Neighbors were William BARKLEY, Joseph PEYTON, Nathan BACON, Enoch WOOD and Daniel FOX. The family removed to Edgar County, Illinois and are listed 1830 Census #26 -Persons allotted to Garland B SHELLIDY. Males (1) 10-15, (1) in 40-50 age group; Females (1) Under 5, (2) 5-10, (1) 10-15 and (1) 30-40 age group, and again the only KIRKPATRICK living in the county. The pattern is established clearly that William KIRKPATRICK was always on the 'cutting edge' of the Frontier. He obtained several Land Warrants from the State of Illinois. Also we find him acting on a Grand Jury in Edgar County on September 6, 1831.

William KIRKPATRICK died November 20, 1838 at Bloomfield, Edgar County, Illinois. There are many records on him to be found at the Courthouse at Paris, Illinois, since he left minor children. Children were: Katharine (KIRKPATRICK) SPRAGUE who married Henry Harrison SPRAGUE and whose children were Lewis Marion SPRAGUE, William Truman SPRAGUE, Mary (SPRAGUE) MARTIN, Luther SPRAGUE, Henry Harrison SPRAGUE, Milton Jasper SPRAGUE, Manford Augustus SPRAGUE, Celestia Freelove (SPRAGUE) FULK, Lavina Ellen (SPRAGUE) WILSON.

William KIRKPATRICK Jr was born April 2, 1820 and he was married to Nancy MITCHELL on July 27, 1843 at Paris, Illinois. He and Nancy removed to Scotland County, Missouri and are listed in the 1850 Census, #142 in Johnson township. Also living there in the 1850 Census are these families: Henry Harrison SPRAGUE, Alexander HAYS, John A. McCLAIN, Mary McCLAIN, John KIRKPATRICK, Philip KIRKPATRICK and Samuel KIRKPATRICK.

William KIRKPATRICK and Nancy MITCHELL had the following children: Chandler KIRKPATRICK whose sons were Albert, Walter Elvis, Burton and Hugh KIRKPATRICK; Mary Ellen (KIRKPATRICK) HAYS who was born 1848 and who married Alexander Porter HAYS; Elvis KIRKPATRICK who was born May 24, 1852 and who married Matilda SPROAT and whose children were Minnie, Grace, William Elvis, Archie V., Mary Nancy, and Maggie J.;Alfred KIRKPATRICK was born April 6, 1860 and who married Mary Molly HOOVER; and Sarah Olive (KIRKPATRICK) HAYS who married Alexander Porter HAYS after her sister's death.

Martha KIRKPATRICK (1822-1856) and who married John Garrett McGUIRE and had sons William Harvey McQUIRE and Solomon Andrew MCGUIRE; Mary KIRKPATRICK (born 1825) and who married David DANIELS and whose children were Lavice, Almira E., Caroline and Amos; Nancy KIRKPATRICK (1830-1889) and who married John McCLAIN and whose children were George McCLAIN, Frances (McCLAIN) OWENS, and Franklin E. McCLAIN; Margaret Jane KIRKPATRICK (1833-1919) and who married Aaron Friend CADE and whose sons were William Edgar CADE, John David CADE, and Cyrus Stone CADE.

Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK was born July 7, 1837 and he was married to Jane WHISLER on March 3, 1859. She was a daughter of Jacob E. WHISLER and Lovina DAVISON. Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK, our Great Grandfather, did not live in the home of his step-father, William STILLWELL. He is listed living with his brother, William KIRKPATRICK Jr, in Scotland County, Missouri in the 1850 Census. Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK and Jane WHISLER were listed in the 1860 Census of Jefferson County, Fairfield, Iowa. Also living there at that year was his older sister and family, Mary (KIRKPATRICK) DANIELS.

Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK and Jane WHISLER had the following children: Martha Ellen KIRKPATRICK born Dec 11, 1859 and died February 23, 1862; Mary Olive (KIRKPATRICK) HAMILTON who married Walter HAMILTON and had son Oliver Robert HAMILTON; Elmer Morton KIRKPATRICK born September 13, 1864 who married Florence Oleva BARNES and whose sons were Myron Barnes KIRKPATRICK, Milo Orton KIRKPATRICK, and Harold Elmer KIRKPATRICK; William Elliott KIRKPATRICK born 1866 died 1935 never married; Ira Orestus KIRKPATRICK born February 6, 1869 who was married Rebecca SUMMERS and whose children were Ruby (KIRKPATRICK) CURRY, Robert Marvin KIRKPATRICK, and Burlind Leroy KIRKPATRICK; Charles Dayton KIRKPATRICK born 1871 died 1961 leaving no descendants; Alice Viola (KIRKPATRICK) ELLIFF born 1873 died 1962 who married Hardy ELLIFF and whose sons were Dee Marvin ELLIFF, Thomas Morris ELLIFF, and William Hardy ELLIFF; Lou Ella (KIRKPATRICK) WISHART born 1876 died 1952 who married Frank WISHART and had son Wayne WISHART; George Archer KIRKPATRICK born August 27, 1878 who married Anna BRIGGS and had son Paul Briggs KIRKPATRICK, daughters Helen Frances (KIRKPATRICK) MYERS, Georganna (KIRKPATRICK) GERTH, and Marian Jane (KIRKPATRICK)MASON; Robert Orville KIRKPATRICK was born April 21, 1881 and who married Enna BRANN and whose children were Edna (KIRKPATRICK) VONDERHEIDE, Harry Edwin KIRKPATRICK and Hillis Orville KIRKPATRICK born July 10, 1918 who married Nina HUMPHREY and has son William Robert KIRKPATRICK; and the 'baby' of the family was Olah Adolphus KIRKPATRICK born October 20, 1884 and died in September 1933 leaving no heirs.

Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK and Jane WHISLER were the direct ancestors and founder of all present day KIRKPATRICK families living in Scotland County, Missouri today. And, for a period of one hundred forty years, these families have established homes in this county. It is well to note that there have been other KIRKPATRICK's in Scotland County from time to time, but we could not establish any kinship to them ... e.g. John, Philip, Samuel, Thomas, James, Matthew, ... all at an early time. Also, these were not researched because of not being our family lines. The families of William KIRKPATRICK Jr and wife, Nancy MITCHELL did move out of Scotland County during the late 1800's. Some of the descendants of this line did eventually reach and establish homes on the West Coast. (Refer to Diary of Minnie (KIRKPATRICK) MASLEN)

William KIRKPATRICK upon his death left much in the way of real and personal property located in Edgar County, Illinois. His gravesite has never been located or found. The Court appointed David LIGHT as the legal Guardian of the minor children and also John McKEE as Administrator of his estate. His wife, was married to a neighbor, William STILLWELL, on September 9, 1841. They had one child, Mariah STILLWELL who married Porter ARMSTRONG. William STILLWELL and Martha removed from Edgar County, Illinois, to Jefferson County, Fairfield, Iowa where he died. She continued to live there and in Wapello County, Iowa.(However, she is living with son Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK in 1870 Census of Scotland Co., Missouri). She - Martha (HAYS) KIRKPATRICK STILLWELL died 1876 and is buried in the Memphis Cemetery, Scotland County, Missouri in the KIRKPATRICK plot.

VI His ancestry and parentage

In 1957 and 1958 a genealogical record was published on WILLIAM KIRKPATRICK DIED NOVEMBER 20, 1838-Immigrant Ancestor from Ireland to America. Clermont County, Ohio and Edgar County, Illinois and A DIRECTORY OF HIS DESCENDANTS. This work was based on family tradition that he was in fact born in Ireland. For many years now we have known that this was in error and that he was in fact born in Pennsylvania. His oldest son, William KIRKPATRICK Jr wrote in his memoirs that his father was Scotch-Irish and he along with all the other children state in the Census records that their father's birthplace was in Pennsylvania. The only exception was my Great Grandfather Robert Finley KIRKPATRICK who stated 1880 Census that his father was born in Ireland. Since he never knew his father, and was an infant when his father died in 1838, most likely simply didn't know.

Great Uncle Doctor Charlie KIRKPATRICK wrote in a letter in the early 1950's that "seven KIRKPATRICK brothers had migrated to this country via Ireland" at an early time and that we were all descended from one of them. At that same time various others in the family had stated that the family was Scotch-Irish.
